Subject: Chat with Evie Mercer
From: Evie Mercer <mercerevie@gmail.com>

Evie: hello bb. please be vigilant of the name i told u earlier, timm wheeler. there has been a debate on if u should be told more. its stupid, but he is dangerous.
me: who is he?
Evie: it's hard to explain.. let me try to figure out how to sum it up one sec Evie: at best, he is a saboteur in that he has directly harmed several ops abroad. at worst, he is someone who is selling info to the feds, whatever he can find. he recruits teenagers and the ignorant, he's a scumbag. the worst thing he did, was encourage minors to hack into Evie: bank accounts to steal money that was supposed to go towards new servers for a very important op. he is currently on a campaign of hate and trying pathetically to se whoever he can to cause division and discord and paranoia. he bases most of his bullshit on facebook and twitter Evie: but Evie: he's started infiltrating the irc and just be careful is all i am saying. this is a summary, b/c not trying to waste your time.
Evie: he is dangerous, at best a saboteur and a nobody from DALLAS
Evie: at worst, a seller of info Evie: the end
me: which IRC has he infiltrated?
Evie: let me check my messages.
Evie: i do not think he has made it into private ircs but i have been told to be on alert, timm has ties to jester and is likely logging. he is an idiot though, timm, so i'm pretty sure he is sticking to the basics like voxanon Evie: besides logging shit he's probably out to recruit more tweens me: does he operate out of 2600?
Evie: let me check again. i have had a long and drawn out facebook (fucking stupid) messaging adventure with him and he might have told me one sex
Evie: lol sec oops
Evie: i can't tell you. i would guess no.
me: okay
Evie: by i can't tell you i mean i literally dont know, not that i know and won't me: 2600 is where the jester has a little channel called "jester," some of his various fans congregate there, many have been involved in trying to identify or "socially engineer" Anons Evie: right, i know. part of me thinks no, because it would be too fucking obvious- he has been trying to use the jester shit to intimidate ppl but i don't think the jester gives a shit about timm tbh
Evie: timothyew@gmail.com
Skype=Timm_Dallas

Evie: i guess, from what i am hearing right now, donald g lane and gian nico use irc much more. and thomas cook. i can see them kissing jester's ass
Evie: i have my own personal issues with this person, i have been attacked, however, it's nothing compared to what he's done as a saboteur. imo Evie: and to be brutally honest, there has been talk of whether or not to tell you about timm at all but tonight i just felt wtf people should be warned esp ppl like u.
me: I'm assuming these people think I'm a snitch Evie: who? timm?
me: whoever objected to me being told Evie: no, i think it was more, does he need this right now. kind of a thing.
me: it's good for me to know in case it comes up, although unfortunately there's probably not a lot I can do to warn the sort of people who would be most vulnerable to him
Evie: i'd appreciate if u didn't tell kallista i told you this, but he was one who said wait on it. out of respect for you and you not needing extra b.s
Evie: i know. we are all working on this. it's bullshit and it's taking time away from real shit but when u are continually attacked it's hard to ignore and thus i've been working less on what i can do for syria and more on this retarded timm wheeler b.s Evie: pls do not tell kalli. he is one of the ppl i respect the MOST. and i'd feel kinda silly if he found out i was the one to tell u. i'm pissed beyond belief though i cannot help it :(
me: I won't say anything, it's not a big deal at all Evie: ok. ty it's not. except for those involved.
me: What I mean is, it's no problem not telling Kallista. I guess I didn't phrase that well Evie: oh ok yeah no worries. i have taken a few valium- little loopy. it makes sense now... got to deal with this bullshit somehow. the toll it's taken on me is nothing compared to what he has done to others. and anonymous whatever the fuck that is, u know?
me: Yeah, these people actually can cause considerable problems, whereas a lot of Anons would prefer to think that they can't, because its more fun to think that one's enemies are all incompetent.
me: That's one of the problems with the mentality that certain Anons have, kind of connected to the sort of faux-macho desire to consider everything a victory when that's not actually the case Evie: seriously! egofagging is spreading like a virus, you would think people would learn. does the name lizzie brett ring a bell at all?
me: nope
Evie: lmfao
Evie: i have to tell you this Evie: before i decided to message you about timm, i asked people their thoughts on it... i cannot believe you don't know of her because this is pretty lulzy:
Evie: lizzie referred about 5,000 to the fact that you can't be trusted because you are currently, at this moment, a heroin addict, that she knows, she KNOWS this, and keeps referencing old shit. she said to me once "i have a contact to reach him but i don't trust addicts"

Evie: over and over and over again she is like, the barrett brown expert who knows everything about you except for the fact that you don't seem to know of her.
and... she's a journalist. apparently.
Evie: she is one of them who said not to tell you Evie: and in her case, perhaps it was not concern.
me: I actually stopped doing heroin almost a year ago, am on Suboxone Evie: sorry, about 5000 times i meant to say.

i know. i say that. yet still, she knows you are doing heroin.
Evie: congratulations btw.
me: well, Suboxone is still an opiate, it just causes less problems because it's legal and cheap, actually it has a much worse withdrawal schedule, so I'm still sort of trapped
Evie: i know. kinda like methadone i hear Evie: the devil u know i guess... me: but opiate addicts are only unreliable to the extent that they're dependent on being able to obtain an expensive drug that most can't afford Evie: " I would just be very cautious with him. He's been in treatment for heroin and other addiction before, he's fallen off the wagon and used in the last six months. Op cartel.... Which affected me and mine.... And I personally do not trust addicts/ as they fuck up and screw you over."
Evie: " Have you seen some of his bathtub fireside chats? He's nodding. It relatively well known that he's had issues in the past.

Amrita David That was not that long ago ...last fall. Cause he was a member of anon deux for a few minutes around that time. People who had an addiction don't randomly quit without rehab. Life experience tells me this. I've never been a junkie but I've buried a lot of friends over the years."
me: I doubt she understands what OpCartel was Evie: mr. = me. sorry again derp
Evie: yeah she doesn't understand a lot.
Evie: how it effected "me and mine" i would love to know me: also not sure was Anon Deux refers to Evie: lolololol
Evie: she is a liar
Evie: it's a facebook group
Evie: it's sort of a softer anon... hippie-ish Evie: i am dying seriously... anonymous part deux was a group started by lizzie b/c she didn't like the other group.

me: yeah, I have no idea what that is Evie: i'd link u but a. you have no reason to care and b. it's set to secret. i lol'd at the idea of you in that group but... w/e.
me: I get a lot of invitations to facebook groups and things, sometimes I'm set as an administrator, maybe she did that Evie: i was one of the people who messaged you, asking if it was really you, because lizzie made it seem as if you requested to join. and she was saying things like "should we let him in?? he is trying to make $$ off of us" blah blah the old shit. when you were finally let in or whatever, she kept talking shit.
Evie: he is fucking full of it. i am so glad i contacted u. "i'm a journalist, i have connections to bb" and yet.... nope.avi Evie: *she me: okay, that thing me: yeah, that was irritating as fuck Evie: yeah like 15 years ago lol me: she brought me in without letting me know and then I got notifications about messages and many of them were denouncing me for not having said anything yet Evie: hahahaha oh god me: that was right before when I turned off notifications on Facebook altogether me: christ
Evie: just laugh dont get mad lol.
Evie: people who spend all of their "anon" lives on fb are pretty funny
Evie: and pretty sad tbh. not that i judge people for being a "real anon" Evie: but it gets retarded. i personally had a bitch fit about tonights "barrett is still on heroin" shit. because, it's incredibly elitist and means nothing. even furthermore, you are going to talk shit on another anon? that does real tings? yeah, bitch, later. u know?
Evie: sorry timm vs antisec vs women vs kage vs everyone is taking it's toll on me. need to learn to not give a shit.
lizzie brett is no longer my friend.
me: it's a tough environment, no one is entirely immune from the interpersonal shit that pops up Evie: does it bug u that i chat to you, like out of no where?
me: no, but that reminds me, I've got to get some work done on the book tonight, deadline for last chapter is coming up me: see you later
Evie: ok.
